Greater Spokane Incorporated

The third bi-annual

SINE Function | SINE f(3) Ecosystem Connect

Startup Spokane and the Elson S. Floyd College of Medicine at WSU are joining forces to host the third biannual Spokane Innovator NEtwork, SINE f(3) - a networking event bringing together WSU faculty, regional innovators in health sciences, technology, and the entrepreneurial community at large.

This fall's event will include a panel discussion led by local resource providers around the question: How is an idea commercialized? Panelists will offer their answers to the question with time to field questions from the audience.

There will also be time to mingle, connect, and reinforce collaboration with your peers and the greater entrepreneurial community
